

Wake up – Spiritual, Piano oder Orgel

When your life runs through your fingers like sand when there´s no one by your side to hold your hand when you thought you´d move the world today and it simply fades away

Refr.: Then wake up, light is shining through oh, wake up, light is shining through

When people share a piece of life with you and then dissapear forever out of view when you rock yourself to sleep with thoughts of unfilled dreams

Refr.: So, wake up, light is shining through yeah, wake up, light is shining through

Just close your eyes and listen to your soul sing your little song and let it sound out loud nothing´s waiting for your after all, but eternity

Refr.: Now wake up, wake up, see, the light is shining through look into the light and get another view dance into it a new world will come true

When there´s no one left to hold you in the dark when you long to tear the shadows all apart when you want to throw all masks away to be able to go your way

oh, wake up, light is shining through the one you do it for is you
